

Luz Rios Receives Two Nominations to the 2009 Latin Billboard Music Awards!

Singer Songwriter Luz Rios has been nominated to the Latin Billboard Music Awards in two important categories for her hit song "Aire"

Luz has received the following nominations: "Hot Latin Song of the Year – Vocal Event." for her duet with Joan Sebastian, and "Regional Mexican Airplay Song of the year - Female Category."

"Aire", a song written by Luz Rios comprised of romantic lyrics and a captivating melody, has been rotating in radio simultaneously on Pop and Regional Mexican formats. LCR Records featured her hit single in all major Radio and TV programs in the United States.

The new category of Hot Latin Song of the Year, Vocal Event, recognizes the significant achievement of an important vocal contribution as the one that was established between Luz Rios and Joan Sebastian. Joan Sebastian was so impressed by Luz Rios that he suggested participating in the duet, because he loved the song "Aire" and Luz's voice.

The Latin Billboard Music Awards will be televised "Live" from Miami, April 23, 2009 on the Telemundo / NBC Network.
